

Inclusive landscape governance in a decision and policy context

Session organisers:

To be confirmed

Landscape governance sets the parameters for how landscapes are used, developed and maintained. But how can these processes be made inclusive for all of the relevant actors who have a stake in landscapes? In this session, participants will explore the principles of inclusive landscape governance and how these are shaped by decision-making and the wider policy context.